

God Made the Heavens and the Earth

1. God made the heav - ens and the earth by His cre - a - tive Word. The
 2. God told the clouds to soar on high, their wat - 'ry wealth to bear, up -
 3. Then God looked at the earth He'd made and or - dered plants to grow. Both
 4. Then God cre - a - ted two great lights and put them on dis - play. The
 5. Then in the deep did God cre - ate the crea - tures of the sea. The skies and world were all brought forth by the Al - might - y LORD. The on the breeze and in the sky, and move a - long the air. The ▶ field and mead - ow He ar - rayed with crops and seed to sow. The moon He made to rule the night, the sun to gov - ern day. The fish and whale, both small and great He made a - bun - dant - ly. As Spir - it hov - ered o'er the deep. God said: "Let there be light!" Then wa - ters on the earth be - low were gath - ered by His hand. The ▶ land and soil pro - duced its goods: herbs, veg - e - ta - tion, leaves; shrubs, stars He cast 'cross heav - en's vault; they praise Cre - a - tor God. From well the skies He filled with birds, the spar - row and the swan. And light a - cross the heav - ens swept and scat - tered dark - est night.

 roil - ing seas He caused to flow and leave the sol - id land.
 ▶ flow - ers, or - chards, glen and woods, grain in a - bun - dant sheaves.
 east to west they Him ex - alt and spread His fame a - broad.
 prais - es to our God were heard at ev - ery new day's dawn.

6. Next God made all the animals
 that live upon the land:
 the wild, the tame, whatever crawls
 emerged at His command.
 And then at last God made a man:
 He called him to be king.
 And from man's rib God made a queen
 to help man rule all things.

7. And God saw all that He had made;
 He viewed it from on high:
 the great foundations He had laid,
 the water and the sky.
 He saw all creatures great and small;
 they all before Him stood.
 The Word of God that made it all declared it very good.